THE ORDER OF SERVICE

"We Came To Worship and Give Thanks"

Organ Prelude

Processional Hymn: "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven"

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
to his feet thy tribute bring;
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
evermore his praises sing:
Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favor
to our fathers in distress;
praise him still the same for ever,
slow to chide and swift to bless:
Alleluia, alleluia!
Glorious in his faithfulness.

Father-like, he tends and spares us;
well our feeble frame he knows;
in his hand he gently bears us,
rescues us from all our foes.
Alleluia, alleluia!
Widely yet his mercy flows.

Angels, help us to adore him;
ye behold him face to face;
sun and moon, bow down before him,
dwellers all in time and space.
Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise with us the God of grace.

WELCOME

ALL: And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

"God the Father forgives us in Christ and heals us by the Holy Spirit. Let us therefore put away all anger and bitterness, all slander and malice, and confess our sins to God our redeemer."

PRAYER OF PENITENCE

All: "Lord God, we have sinned against you; we have done evil in your sight. We are sorry and repent. Have mercy on us according to your love. Wash away our wrongdoing and cleanse us from our sin. Renew a right spirit within us and restore us to the joy of your salvation, through Jesus Christ our Lord." Amen.

ABSOLUTION (Priest)

Almighty God, who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in life

 From the Priest's Desk

WELCOME first-time visitors to Christ Church, Devonshire...we're glad you came!
The first time as a visitor, we hope the next time as family.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENDANCE & PRAYERS! The Celebration of Life for the late Sis. Margaret Ann Lines was a beautiful and real comforting gathering for her family, friends and church family. As it is with any larger assembly in the main building, we were served by several Vestry, Service Team and Church Members to facilitate parking, greeting and seating. In addition to expressions of gratitude already shared by the family of Mrs. Lines, I also want to thank all who assisted in creating a safe and affirming space to embrace and encourage those mourning. For some serving, it was a sacrifice that deserves the complement of this acknowledgement. May God bless and keep you!

WE PRAY FOR YOU, GOD'S GRACE! Churchwarden Sharon Lee Johnson has started classes with the Anglican Theological Institute of Bermuda (ATIB). Please join me in praying for her and five other students who enrolled for the 2-year certificate programme in relation to St. Mellitus College, UK. Through yearly registration each fall season, classes are open to whosoever desires a more robust course of study in theology which involves a level of academic rigor not totally dissimilar to a residential school of theology. If interested, please contact the Church Office to schedule an appointment with Rev'd Jay or Lay Reader Nathalie Barnett-Dill (Graduate, Class 2022).

CONGRATULATIONS, SIS. SHERNETTE WOLFFE! Once again, retired Clerk to the Legislature Sis. Shernette has been honoured by the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association after 20 years of "authoritative advice" and distinguished service during which Bermuda's Parliament underwent a host of revisions. The awards ceremony was held in Turks & Caicos where she was recognised along with four other retired clerks from across the Caribbean.

THANK YOU, Sis. Ann & Bro. Ed Johnson for thinking enough us to share in your Renewal of Vows and Blessing of Rings to celebrate of your 66th Marriage Anniversary (September 12th) last Sunday at the 11:00 a.m. Service. The refreshments of cake and fruit punch in the T.N.Nisbett Hall was a special bonus. May the Lord continue to bless your love and lives together.

LIFE CONVERSATIONS are held weekly on Tuesdays till October 24th at 6:30 nightly. Our theme is "You Can't Beat God-giving!" (Matthew 5:43-45). In this 7-Week journey, we will discuss Christian values and principles surrounding universal need, fairness, empathy, trust and more. In a new report published January 24th, 2023, the Archbishops' Commission on Reimagining Care revealed a vision of care for one-another inspired by God-giving. Come and join this conversation as we explore who God made us to be for one another.

DID YOU KNOW? Evelyn Fay "Byllee" Lang was an established sculptor who inspired a generation of artists – black and white, wealthy and working class – and an integral part of the local arts scene. On December 4, 1908 she was born near Didsbury, Alberta, Canada, the daughter of a rancher and raised on a ranch. At a young age, Byllee could handle a rifle and ride a horse with ease. She discovered her passion for sculpture at the Winnipeg School of Art, where she was a student from 1926 to 1930. But the sculpture curriculum was limited so she moved east to Toronto, where she studied under Canadian-born sculptor Emanuel Hahn (1881-1957) at the Ontario College of Art. Money she earned making sculptures of pet dogs of Toronto society women got her to Europe. It would be her base for several years. She studied in Munich for two years and visited the great cities of Europe. She was living in Berlin after Hitler came to power and witnessed acts of anti-Semitism, which deeply disturbed her. In 1935, as the Spanish Civil War threatened, Lang returned to Canada. In Canada, she established the deMarin School of Sculpture in Winnipeg in 1936, teaching adults and children. In 1940, she joined the faculty of the Winnipeg School of Art, where she taught sculpture for three years. Her commissions included sculptures of prominent Canadians. She later worked for the National Film Board in Ottawa. Her celebrated sculpture, a bas-relief entitled Coal Miners, led to a job with Canadian National Railways in Montreal. Her work was twice selected to represent the Commonwealth abroad. She came to Bermuda from New York, where she lived for a period. In Bermuda, she befriended the Cooper brothers, arts patrons Sir Gilbert and Arthur. They rented her studio space on the second floor of their department store A.S. Cooper's and later hired her to be a window dresser. She created prize-winning window displays for the two Cooper stores in Hamilton and spectacular floats for the annual Floral Pageant. In 1954, A.S. Cooper's float 'Surf Riding', which was decorated with 16,000 Easter lilies, won the top prize. In 1948, she began teaching sculpture and clay modeling to children at the Bermuda Art Association's new art school. When she left A.S. Cooper's, she opened three studios in various locations and taught at all three locations. Her studio settings were always integrated, even though schools elsewhere in Bermuda were segregated. Her life was a whirlwind of artistic activity. She was a member of the Bermuda Society of Arts. She worked on Bermuda Musical and Dramatic Society theatre productions. Dance costumes she designed and created for the 1959 production of My Heart Stays Here were among her more spectacular creations. Her best-known sculptures from her Bermuda years include busts of Davy Douglas, a well-known carriage driver, which was exhibited in Toronto in 1952, Esso Steel Band leader Rudy Commissiong, and a dolphin for the pool at Horizons. In 1958, she received her biggest commission—the Anglican Cathedral reredos, comprising an altar screen and statues of Christ and 14 saints. The first completed figure—the 1,000-pound statue of Christ—was installed and dedicated amid great fanfare in July 1962. Sadly, Evelyn Fay "Byllee" Lang died suddenly on December 3rd, 1966. THE WORD OF GOD

1st Reading: Genesis 20:15-21

11:00 a.m. - Norma 'Nan' Trott

Realizing that their father was dead, Joseph's brothers said, 'What if Joseph still bears a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong that we did to him?' So they approached Joseph, saying, 'Your father gave this instruction before he died, "Say to Joseph: I beg you, forgive the crime of your brothers and the wrong they did in harming you." Now therefore please forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your father.' Joseph wept when they spoke to him. Then his brothers also wept, fell down before him, and said, 'We are here as your slaves.' But Joseph said to them, 'Do not be afraid! Am I in the place of God? Even though you intended to do harm to me, God intended it for good, in order to preserve a numerous people, as he is doing today. So have no fear; I myself will provide for you and your little ones.' In this way he reassured them, speaking kindly to them.

2nd Reading: Psalms 103:8-13 (a responsive reading)

11:00 a.m. - Faith Gilkes

⁸ The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

⁹ He will not always accuse, nor will he keep his anger for ever.

¹⁰ He does not deal with us according to our sins,
nor repay us according to our iniquities.

¹¹ For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so great is his steadfast love towards those who fear him;

¹² as far as the east is from the west, so far he removes our transgressions from us.

¹³ As a father has compassion for his children,
so the LORD has compassion for those who fear him.

3rd Reading: The Epistle: Romans 14.1-12

8:00 a.m. - Lay Reader G. Leon Burt

11:00 a.m. - Aprille Choudhury-DeShield

Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarrelling over opinions. Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgement on those who eat; for God has welcomed them. Who are you to pass judgement on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand. Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds. Those who observe the day, observe it in honour of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honour of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honour of the Lord and give thanks to God. We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. ⁸If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. Why do you pass judgement on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgement seat of God. For it is written, 'As I live,' says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall give praise to God.' So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia

I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last

Reader: Hear The Gospel of our Lord according to Matthew 18:21-35

Response: Glory be to Thee, O Lord

'Then Peter came and said to him, 'Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?' Jesus said to him, 'Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times. 'For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, "Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything." And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow-slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, "Pay what you owe." Then his fellow-slave fell down and pleaded with him, "Have patience with me, and I will pay you." But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow-slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned him and said to him, "You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow-slave, as I had mercy on you?" And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he should pay his entire debt. So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart.'

This is the Gospel of Christ

Praise Be To Thee O Christ

NICENE CREED (Please stand)

All: I believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father by whom all things were made; who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, and was ascended into heaven, and sits on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead, whose Kingdom shall have no end. And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord, the Giver of Life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the Resurrection of the dead, and the Life of the world to come. Amen.

SHARING THE PEACE

“Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us access to his grace. May the Peace of the Lord be always with you.” All: And also with you

Offertory Hymn: “Jesus Is All The World To Me”

Jesus is all the world to me,
 My life, my joy, my all;
 He is my strength from day to day,
 Without him I would fall:
 When I am sad, to him I go,
 No other one can cheer me so;
 When I am sad, he makes me glad,
 He's my friend.

Jesus is all the world to me,
 I want no better friend;
 I trust him now, I'll trust him when
 Life's fleeting days shall end:
 Beautiful life with such a friend,
 Beautiful life that has no end;
 Eternal life, eternal joy,
 He's my friend.

Jesus is all the world to me,
 My friend in trials sore;
 I go to him for blessings, and
 He gives them o'er and o'er:
 He sends the sunshine and the rain,
 He sends the harvest's golden grain;
 Sunshine and rain, harvest of grain,
 He's my friend.
